

Women in Leisure Services Virtual Book Club Meeting

Sunday | March 14, 2021 | 9:30-10:30am | via Zoom

Ring in the new year with the inaugural WILS Book Club Meeting. We'll discuss "Girl, Stop Apologizing" by Rachel Hollis. Purchase your copy and watch for details at chiwomen.org. As Rachel Hollis says, "Stop waiting for someday; someday is a myth. Don't wait to have the time; start planning to make the time."

Women in Leisure Services, Chi Kappa Rho, Inc. (WILS) is a non-profit 501(c)(6) organization for professional women involved in the delivery of leisure and community services in private, commercial, and public settings. WILS consists of five chapters located in California, Minnesota, and Illinois. Since 1936 WILS has provided countless opportunities for professional women working in parks & recreation to make connections that inspire personal and professional growth and offer the opportunity to develop a strong lifelong network.

Register to attend the WILS Book Club today at chiwomen.org
so we can send you the Zoom link via email.

Follow us on Facebook: facebook.com/WILSChiChapter

For WILS Chi Chapter 2021 event and membership information, visit chiwomen.org.